Academy
for Chief Executives

Are You Looking for a New Business Direction?

The Academy for Chief Executives is an organisation that brings business leaders together. It provides a confidential forum for learning, coaching, discussion and support. Established 13 years ago, the Academy inspires & changes lives by bringing together groups of CEO's, MD's and business leaders from non-competing businesses who meet each month to learn and develop. With 35 successful groups already established around the country, and as part of the national expansion programme, they are now looking to grow the organisation and recruit new Chairs to build and run new groups in various locations nationwide.

As an inspirational leader you are already used to guiding and influencing and your greatest thrill is to see people and businesses develop. The Academy has on offer one of the most rewarding opportunities you will ever see if you are ready for something more compelling than just another way of making money. The Academy inspires and changes lives and this is an opportunity which offers you the chance to build a new group of your own and enjoy a good income at the same time. Academy groups get fantastic value from their regular meetings and pay well for the privilege.

As an investor and holder of a franchise, you will manage a group of CEO's therefore we are looking for experienced business leaders who have something special to offer and are attracted by inspiring and influencing others. You will probably have been a Managing Director, CEO or business leader with a good range of experience working in different organisations. You will be an excellent coach, mentor and facilitator to others and you may be or have been a business consultant. This is a fantastic opportunity to influence substantial workforces across the UK with your skills and knowledge and to gain considerable financial reward in doing so. Please send in your fully detailed application if you are interested in this investment opportunity. To learn more about the Academy go to www.chiefexecutive.com.
